

Business English program, the Faculty of Humanities and Social Sciences, organized the orientation for the new students in the academic year 2020.

Business English program, the Faculty of Humanities and Social Sciences, organized the orientation for the new students in the academic year 2020.

On July 8th, 2020, the Business English program, the Department of Humanities, the Faculty of Humanities and Social Sciences, held the orientation for the freshmen students in the academic year 2020 through the online by Google Hangouts Meet, which welcomed by Dr. Angvarrah Lieungnar, and the lecturers from the Business English program. The purpose of this orientation is to give information about the Business English program, the curriculum for the study in the Business English program, life in the university.